

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

VS.

EULOGIO BARRON-VALDEZ,

Defendant.

8:10CR389

ORDER

This matter is before the court on the motion to continue by defendant Eulogio Barron-Valdez (Barron-Valdez) (Filing No. 20). Barron-Valdez seeks a continuance of the trial of this matter which is scheduled for January 10, 2011. Barron-Valdez's counsel has represented to the court that Barron-Valdez will submit an affidavit wherein Barron-Valdez represents that he consents to the motion and acknowledges he understands the additional time may be excludable time for the purposes of the Speedy Trial Act. Barron-Valdez's counsel represents that government's counsel has no objection to the motion. Upon consideration, the motion will be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. Barron-Valdez's motion to continue trial (Filing No. 20) is granted.
2. Trial of this matter is re-scheduled for February 28, 2011, before Chief Judge Joseph F. Bataillon and a jury. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between December 22, 2010, and February 28, 2011, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason that defendant's counsel requires additional time to adequately prepare the case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B).

DATED this 22nd day of December, 2010.
